

Washington dispatch on this page yesterday reported that officials "fear the world is in for about 10 years of international tension and jitters", and therefore the United States must remain fully alerted.

And certainly you can believe our officials are leveling with us on the whole truth and nothing but the truth. There has always been trouble in some corner of the world, but heretofore it was somebody else's worry not ours.

But today America is the world's No. 1 nation, with the greatest wealth at home and trade abroad, to protect; and therefore has the world's largest navy and biggest war potential. These things go together inevitably. And inevitably also, is the fact that wherever there's trouble in the world, trouble that some other world power used to handle, it now falls back upon America.

The current score is about 50-50. We've set up an impressive record against Russia, but on the other side of the world we've lost China—gone to the Reds with 2 billions of dollars and equipment. Experts tell us the Chinese are getting back into the China market. It will take 5 billions. My guess is 5 billions won't assure success; and I estimate, further, that America isn't going to risk any major fraction of 5 billions.

The cold fact about success in world power politics is that there's no point to risking very much for a country where you have nothing even if you win. Europe remains the first front of civilization. If we salvage representative popular government for Europe, which can do something for itself if given a chance, we can afford to lose the current decision in China, which has no need of anything for itself in Western Europe. The European dish is cooking, but the Chinese dish hasn't even started to get warm. We can afford to set it on the back-burner and wait and see.

By the way, where are all the loud American critics who used to have so much to say about British world imperialism? Didn't they overlook the trouble that went along with empire? Now the British are in a corner, and whether America has empire or not, we certainly have fallen heir to all the tough jobs the British used to do—and we know in advance we'll get no more thanks than our predecessors got for the well-known role of peace-maker.

Sharing America's Plenty Can Help Bring World Peace

By JAMES THASHER

"Peace and plenty" is an old-fashioned phrase. It has been prayed for by the pious and promised by the politicians for so long that the words, as a team, have been worn thin to the point of losing their meaning.

Yet the desire for peace and plenty is a fundamental human aspiration. Without these two blessings a great deal of what we know as civilization would not be possible. Culture, higher learning, material progress and many other ingredients of human happiness are ours only when we are freed from fear and want and exhausting drudgery.

Peace and plenty, like a lot of other things, must be worked for as well as prayed for. In the last year the people of this country have worked hard for both. They have been aided in their work by good fortune. And even though peace is as secure as we could wish, another bountiful harvest has assured us of the plenty which can be a powerful instrument in the quest for peace.

The traditional American feast that we celebrate today is a symbol of our best. We can eat and eat well, and we can also share. And by sharing we can help bring to others less fortunate that freedom from want and from fear that helps to dispel the discontent which breeds confusion and war.

So, on this Thanksgiving Day, let us humbly and sincerely give thanks for peace and plenty.

Marshall and Truman Air China Problem

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWE

Washington, Nov. 24 — (AP) — President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall today held their second conference on the Chinese crisis.

The Chinese crisis was believed to be foremost among the problems up for early decision.

Even as Marshall entered the White House at 8:45 a. m., Central Standard Time, the press office announced that Mr. Truman would receive Chinese ambassador Wellington Koo later in the day. (11:30 a. m. CST)

Marshall talked with Mr. Truman for 25 minutes. He declined when he left the White House to tell reporters anything about the discussion. Smiling, he said he always left it to the president whether any thing was to be given out about White House conference.

There was no immediate indication of the purpose of the Koo-Marshall meeting. But it stirred speculation that advanced progress has been made by the president. General Marshall and other top government officials in their study of what to do about the China situation.

Some officials believe the Communist sweep in China is certain to cost the United States more billions in foreign aid over the next few years whether or not grand scale aid is given to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

When the universe was a tenth as old as it now is, the great masses of stars called the galaxies were formed. At that time, 300,000,000 years from the beginning of things for the universe to evolve into the general shape it is at present.

Trucking Strike Spreads; Ship Tieup Continues

By The Associated Press

New York's trucking strike was reported spreading today as government representatives resumed efforts to settle a second major labor dispute—the 15-day old East Coast shipping tieup.

Members of a second AFL teamsters' local reported to have joined the strike of 2,000 truck drivers by refusing to cross picket lines. The dispute is over wages.

A third labor dispute in New York involves some 8,000 employees of the railroad express agency. A "slowdown" by the agency's workers resulted in an embargo on nearly all rail and air express shipments in the city.

Cause of the slowdown was the discharge of 13 employees whom the company accused of giving false information in job applications.

While New York was beginning to feel the effects of transportation interruptions, federal mediators called a joint session of management and labor representatives in the shipping strike.

There was no indication, however, of an early settlement in the shipping dispute.

McGrath May Resign as Party Chief

By The Associated Press

Washington, Nov. 24 — (UP) — Administration sources said today Sen. J. Howard McGrath may resign soon as chairman of the Democratic national committee.

The Rhode Islander, it was said, feels his senatorial duties in the new Democratic-controlled Congress will make it difficult for him to carry on simultaneously as head of the national committee.

If McGrath does quit, some quarters believe President Truman will offer the post to Oscar Ewing, now federal security administrator.

Ewing, a native of Greensburg, Ind., has long been active in Democratic party politics. He served as assistant chairman of the national committee from August, 1940 to May, 1942 and was one of Mr. Truman's most ardent backers in the recent campaign.

Ewing also is understood to be in line for a cabinet post. Mr. Truman's new administration.

Mr. Truman will ask Congress in January to create a new Department of Public Health and Welfare. Sources close to the White House believe Ewing has the inside track to head that agency if Congress sets it up.

There would be nothing to prevent Ewing from holding down both a cabinet post and the national chairmanship. In past years the national chairman usually has been made postmaster general.

McGrath has been national Democratic chairman since October, 1947 when Mr. Truman picked him to succeed Robert E. Hannegan.

The Rhode Island lawyer has been active in politics for 20 years and has served in a wide variety of elective jobs, ranging from city solicitor of Central Falls, R. I., to governor of that state. He was elected to the Senate in 1946.

Army Choosing Draftees Carefully

By The Associated Press

Washington, Nov. 24 — (AP) — The army apparently is picking and choosing its draftees more carefully than during the war, a Selective Service official said today.

Of 44,000 men examined since early November in 43 states, he said 32,000 have been rejected as inadequate to incomplete figures from local boards.

This 70 per cent rate, roughly double the wartime rejection rate of 35.8 per cent, may be due to stricter physical standards set by army doctors, the draft official said.

Most of the men being examined are in the 24 and 25-year-old groups, though some boards are down to their 23-year-olds and a few to the 22s. So probably most of these men were looked over and turned down for physical reasons during the war, he said.

Draft officials have estimated that only 70,000 men in the 22-25 age group would be eligible for compulsory military service because of physical limitations for martial status, previous service and other reasons.

The army plans to induct 15,000 men in December and 20,000 men in January. This month 10,000 men have been called up.

When the army training camps get into full swing the army expects to raise its draft calls to 30,000 monthly, thus adding 360,000 men each year.

Star to Suspend for the Holiday on Thanksgiving

By The Associated Press

There will be no edition of The Star Thursday afternoon in the city or Friday morning on the coast, the newspaper has been closed in all departments for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Publication will be resumed Friday afternoon in the city, Saturday morning on the coast. The Star suspends for three holidays a year, the others being Christmas and the Fourth of July.

Bad Weather Predicted for Some Areas

By The Associated Press

Washington, Nov. 24 — (AP) — Rain or cloudy weather is in store for many parts of the nation on Thanksgiving Day.

Snow will hit some sections of the Midwest and the Northern Rockies. But it will be sunny and mild in Florida, the Gulf states and California.

Snow flurries will occur in Nebraska, eastern Dakotas, and in the Northern Rockies. Seasonal temperatures are expected to be throughout the United States but some colder weather will move into the Northern Plains during the day.

Another top government fiscal official said privately he believes inflationary forces still have the upper hand. And Chester Bowles, one-time boss of OPA and governor-elect of Connecticut, said after a White House visit that Congress "unquestionably" will act against inflation.

Behind all the guesswork lay the big question of what will happen overseas—how much more money will have to go for foreign aid and national defense.

Because the White House advisers are known to feel that any substantial rise over Mr. Truman's present $15,000,000,000 ceiling on next year's military outlays could set the inflation spiral whirling again.

Neutrals Again Take Up Berlin Deadlock

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

Paris, Nov. 24 — (AP) — Six neutral members of the United Nations Security Council took up again today their task of trying to break through the east-west deadlock on Berlin.

The neutrals will sift through American, British, French and Russian answers to a questionnaire on Berlin's currency problems in an effort to find a clue to a means of halting the cold war.

A United Nations official said today that Bramuglia, without explaining, had decided not to publish the replies today. Argentine sources said earlier the Soviet and Western answers would be made public at 5 p. m. (10 a. m. CST) today. The official said the answers probably will be made available Thursday morning.

Because currency is one of the chief causes of friction between the Western powers and Russia in Berlin, Bramuglia is seeking to get at the root of the discord by solving the money problem.

The United States, Britain and France introduced their Western German currency in the Western sectors of Berlin last spring. Soon afterward, in June, Russia began its blockade of the capital city by halting all transportation except the railroads between Berlin and the Western occupation zones.

Russia has refused to lift the blockade until the Western powers accept Soviet currency as the only medium of exchange in all four sectors of the city. The Western powers, on the other hand, have refused to negotiate the currency or other questions until the blockade is lifted.

Despite the neutrals' vigorous new approach to the Berlin dispute Western sources predicted gloomily that this latest effort would collapse.

Living Cost Dip Could Ease Control Demand

By STERLIN F. GREEN

Washington, Nov. 25 — (AP) — A slight but welcome dip in living costs raised the possibility today that President Truman might lean down his demand for "standby" price control and rationing powers when Congress meets in January.

Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the president's council of economic advisers, said a continued ebb in prices, washing out the need for drastic controls, would be "sweet." But he didn't predict that would happen.

"It would be like seeing a fever chart go down," Nourse told a reporter, "but we aren't drawing any conclusions yet."

His comment came after the Bureau of Labor statistics reported last night that its cost-of-living index for October showed a dip of one half of one per cent. This was the first drop in seven months for the index as a whole.

Another top government fiscal official said privately he believes inflationary forces still have the upper hand. And Chester Bowles, one-time boss of OPA and governor-elect of Connecticut, said after a White House visit that Congress "unquestionably" will act against inflation.

Behind all the guesswork lay the big question of what will happen overseas—how much more money will have to go for foreign aid and national defense.

Clemency for Japs Denied by MacArthur

By FRANK L. WHITE

Tokyo, Nov. 24 (AP) — General Douglas MacArthur today denied clemency for Japan's 25 top war criminals and ordered the execution of 16 of them.

As sole reviewing officer, he declined to use his power to lighten any of the sentences determined by the International Military Tribunal—seven to die on the gallows; 16 to spend the rest of their lives in prison, two to lesser prison terms.

The supreme commander called his task "utterly repugnant" to him. He closed his review of the war guilt case with a plea to people of all creeds in Japan to pray on execution day—yet to be made public—to help the world keep the peace, "lest the human race perish at once."

Attorneys for five defendants planned to appeal to the supreme court of the United States which has never yet intervened in international war crimes cases.

MacArthur, in his statement, said he saw no reason for him to intervene. Whether the prisoners should have been prosecuted at all was not for him to say. But the two-year trial itself, he went on, was a fair one; every safeguard was made to "evolve justice."

Aggies About Losingest Team in U. S.

New York, Nov. 24 — (AP)—Texas A. and M., where the alumni paid $20,000 to get rid of coach Homer Norton after last season, stands a good chance to be the "losingest" football team in the nation this fall.

The Aggies have lost nine straight games. They wind up their season tomorrow against Texas with Texas heavily favored. Nineteen other college teams haven't won a game this year, an Associated Press survey showed today, and 15 of them won't get another chance. Their schedules are completed.

Picks Probable Winner This Weekend

By HAROLD CLAASSEN New York, Nov. 24 — (AP)—Stabbing this week's football winners with a turkey pin-father: Army vs. Navy: The nation's No. 1 gridiron spectacle that will lure 100,000 fans, plus President Truman. He is setting on the Navy side this year but that is likely to be the only distinction.

Army goes into Saturday's fray with an all-winning record. Navy with an all-losing list. Neither streak will end here. Army, Georgia Tech at Georgia: Georgia is lower feller and the players know it. Georgia, Cornell at Pennsylvania: Thursday's top game with the Ivy League title at stake. Pennsylvania.

Kansas at Missouri: The Midwest version of the Yale-Harvard series. Kansas hasn't recovered from the Oklahoma shock. It is another Thanksgiving classic. Missouri at Notre Dame: Duffie, Charlie Wilson, James Russell, I. J. Sutton, Bobby Joe Lee, W. H. Custer, Dale Hockett, Reece Adley and Joe Martindale—hundreds of Hope fans will make the trip simply to see them play.

Both teams have fine records in season play. While the Bobcats depend mostly on speed the Scrappers boast a huge line that furnishes power plays. From any angle the game should prove interesting and usually does.

For benefit of fans Reuben Wilson, MOP bus driver, said today that the Hope-Nashville road is in very good shape and if it doesn't rain will not be hard to drive over.

Magnolia Back Named Best Player 2nd Time

Little Rock, Nov. 23 — (AP)—Sammy Furo, Magnolia A. and M. backfield artist has been selected for the second time as the "Star of the Week" in the Arkansas Interscholastic Conference.

However, he had to share the title with two other junior college players.

Furo is the first player to be selected for the second time. He won the title once in September. His performance against Arkansas College, when he scored three touchdowns and gained 211 yards by rushing, won him this week's selection.

Other backs named by AIC coaches in a poll conducted by the Associated Press were James Edridge of Magnolia A. and M. and Tommy Karam of Little Rock Junior College.

Edridge also tallied three times in the Aggie-Arkansas College game.

Karam, brother of his coach, Jimmy Karam, crossed the goal line twice during the Jaycee-Hendrix game.

Train to Carry Fans to Hope, Nashville Game

The Nashville "Local" has stepped up its schedule and added 3 extra coaches to take Hope fans to Howard County tomorrow where the Scrappers play host to the Bobcats in what should prove to be one of the best games.

The Missouri Pacific announced late yesterday that the regular train to Nashville will leave Hope at 12:30 p.m. and arrive in time for the game which has been called for 2:30 p.m. The train will return to Hope shortly after the game is over. Passengers will be "unloaded" near the field.

Three extra coaches have been provided. Roundtrip for adults will cost $1.50 and for children under 12 years of age 65c.

There can be no question that Nashville is "right" for the contest as they always have been when they play Hope. They have lost their last two games with the Bobcats and that fact will make it even tougher.

For the first time in weeks the Bobcats will be in a pretty good shape. And given a dry field should turn in some fancy offensive play.

Fifteen Hope boys are playing their last high school game—S. A. Westbrook, Dudley Sutton, Tommy Britt, James McCargo, Bobby Lyle Bear, Jimmie Dick Hammons, Don Duffie, Charlie Wilson, James Russell, I. J. Sutton, Bobby Joe Lee, W. H. Custer, Dale Hockett, Reece Adley and Joe Martindale—hundreds of Hope fans will make the trip simply to see them play.

Both teams have fine records in season play. While the Bobcats depend mostly on speed the Scrappers boast a huge line that furnishes power plays. From any angle the game should prove interesting and usually does.

For benefit of fans Reuben Wilson, MOP bus driver, said today that the Hope-Nashville road is in very good shape and if it doesn't rain will not be hard to drive over.

Nevada Can Break More Records

New York, Nov. 24 — (AP)—Having shattered two national collegiate marks in forward passing, once-beaten Nevada goes after a third record tomorrow when the Wolfpack plays a highly successful football season against Wichita.

In eight games, Nevada has averaged an unprecedented 484.8 yards per contest by both rushing and passing. If it nets 267 yards against Wichita, it will break the record of 462.7 yards averaged over a full season by the great Army team of 1945.

Its aerial game has accounted for 2,151 yards and 25 touchdowns — both new records — and its total of 133 completions is far and away the best in the country.

In announcing the weekly statistics for major colleges today, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau disclosed that Nevada needs 15 pass completions against Wichita to break the seasonal record of 147 set last year by Mississippi.

The Wolfpack also has a chance to finish with the lowest percent of pass interceptions and the highest percentage of completions, depending on what success its fine passer, Stan Heath, has tomorrow.

The teams with the high-powered offense also are the teams that score the points. For instance, the highest scoring teams to date are Nevada with 333, Oklahoma with 317, Missouri with 287, California and Lafayette with 227 each, Army with 273, Wyoming with 268, Vanderbilt with 267 and Notre Dame with 260.

THANKSGIVING AND FAITH

Thanksgiving is more than mere feasting and religion. Thanksgiving is a time for renewing our faith in God and the spiritual values of life which are essential to these times.

The Pilgrims who founded our nation worshipped in the wilderness on that first Thanksgiving, giving thanks to God for His blessings. Meager blessings they were, but still plenty for which to be thankful. Today we must live up to the faith of our forefathers. We give thanks for material things, for freedom, but above all, for the privilege of worship.

Go to Church Thanksgiving! Live up to your faith!
